Home » NJ Test written +1 New Jersey MVC Driver's License. 2021 May: In 2001, New Jersey established a license program for the driver graduate to ensure better driver safety. No matter your age, if you are applying for your first license, you must first start with a limited permission. If you are between 16 and 17 years old, you can get a special learning permit if you are enrolled in a driver training course and pass the written MVC test. If you are over 17 years old you can skip the driving school, but you will still have to pass a written knowledge exam. The knowledge test will consist of 50 multiple choice questions from 2021 New Jersey Driver's Manual. A score of 80% or higher will be necessary to pass and get permission. Once you pass the written exam and have permission, you will be required to display two decals on your vehicle: one on your front and back plates. There is no fee to take the exam, but there is a $10 fee for the type of permit and an additional $4 for the decals. Perfect for: drivers allow the test (guide permit), driving license, senior citizens update test, and driver license renewal. Report a problem If you only study the official manual, the chances of passing the written knowledge test are only about 49 percent. The DMV guide is not written to promote fast learning.
