Then, rename your document and click "Save." /en/word2007/text-basics/content/ Introduction It's important to know how to save the documents you are working with. There are many ways you share and receive documents, which will affect how you need to save the file. Are you downloading the document? Saving it for the first time? Saving it as another name? Sharing it with someone who doesn't have Word 2007? All of these factors will affect how you save Word documents. In this lesson, you will learn how to use the Save and Save As commands, how to save as a Word 97-2003 compatible document, and how to save as a PDF. How to save documents Download the example to work along with the video. To use the Save As command: Click the Microsoft Office button.Select Save AsWord Document. The Save As dialog box appears. Select the location where you want to save the document using the drop-down menu.Enter a name for the document. To use the Save command: Click the Microsoft Office button.Select Save from the menu. Using the Save command saves the document in its current location using the same file name. If you are saving for the first time and select Save, the Save As dialog box will appear. To Save As a Word 97 - 2003 document: Click the Microsoft Office button.Select Save AsWord 97-2003 Document. Select the location where you want to save the document using the drop-down menu.Enter a name for the document.Click the Save button. To download the PDF extension: Click the Microsoft Office button.Select Save AsFind add-ins for other file formats. This will open your web browser to the Microsoft site.Follow the instructions on the Microsoft site for downloading the extension. To save as a PDF: Click the Microsoft Office button.Select Save AsPDF. The Save As dialog box will appear. Select the location where you want to save the document using the drop-down menu.Enter a name for the document.Click the Publish button. Compatibility mode Sometimes you may need to work with documents that were created in earlier versions of Microsoft Word, such as Word 2003 or Word 2000. When you open these types of documents, they will appear in Compatibility mode. Compatibility mode disables certain features, so you'll only be able to access commands found in the program that was used to create the document. For example, if you open a document created in Word 2003, you can only use tabs and commands found in Word 2003. If you want access to all of the Word 2007 features, you can save the document in the Word 2007 file format. To exit Compatibility mode: Click the Microsoft Office button.Select Save AsWord Document. Challenge! Use the cover letter or any other Word document you choose to complete this challenge. Open an existing Word document.Save the document with the file name trial.Save the same document as a PDF file.Close the document.Open another existing Word document.Save the document so it is compatible with Word 2003.Close the document. /en/word2007/proofing-features/content/ This resource is designed to be printed as a one page PDF file. An HTML version is also available below. To produce accessible PDF files for the web, the following requirements must be met: The file must meet accessibility standards by providing alternative text for images, proper headings, appropriate link text, etc. The file must be exported correctly. If a file is created by printing to PDF, it will not be correctly tagged. Office 2007 users must have either Acrobat or the Microsoft PDF add-in installed. Office 2010 users can create tagged PDF files natively or with the Adobe add-in. Note The following instructions can also be used to convert PowerPoint files to PDF. Word 2007 Adobe Add-in The Adobe Add-in, also called PDF Maker, is the best choice to create high-quality tagged PDF files. To export a PDF, click on the Office button, hover over Save As, and select Adobe PDF (or use shortcut ALT+F, F, A). Or you can select Create PDF from the Acrobat ribbon. A dialog box will appear. The program should create a tagged PDF file by default. If not, select Adobe PDF Conversion Options and select the Create Accessible (Tagged) PDF file option. Microsoft Add-in Word 2007 offers a free Save as PDF Add-in that allows you to create tagged PDF files without installing Acrobat. This is available at . Click on the Office Button, hover over Save As, and select Adobe PDF (or use shortcut ALT+F, F, P). Before saving, select Options and ensure that the Document structure tags for accessibility option is selected. Word 2010 Adobe Add-in Please note the Acrobat add-in is only available to users who have Acrobat X installed and have the 32-bit version of Office 2010. To export a PDF, select Create PDF from the Acrobat ribbon. Or you can select File> Save as Adobe PDF. A dialog box will appear. The program should create a tagged PDF file by default. If not, select Preferences from the Acrobat ribbon and ensure that Enable Accessibility and Reflow with tagged Adobe PDF is selected. Saving PDF Natively Tagged PDF files can still be created without installing Acrobat. Select File > Save As. Under Save as Type, select PDF. Before saving, select Options and ensure that the Document structure tags for accessibility option is selected.
