With the breakdown of the cAs we hear the word Old Age Home, the image that immediately conjures up in our minds is that of a depressing place, with a number of sad and unwell old people sitting and waiting - for their families.Obviously, no one would like to imagine or even think of their own parents in such an atmosphere.However, with the advent of the nuclear family system in India, another sad reality that has become part of life is that you cannot always be around your parents due to your other obligations. And the loneliness, as well as helplessness due to their advanced age, is inevitable.The old age homes of today are not the sad and forlorn places they are made out to be. Instead, most of them keep the elder people in the old age home busy and engaged in various types of activities like picnics and games etc. This combined with being surrounded by the people of their own age gives the seniors a much happier and healthier life that is full of activity.Another huge advantage is that all Old Age Homes in Navi Mumbai or other cities have associated medical care and emergency services to handle any untoward situation. This is not the case when they are left alone at home. So, constant supervision along with medical aid gives the seniors a fair chance at enjoying their lives without any worry.In addition to the traditional old age homes that offer regular rooms and care facilities, along with some social activities, many modern senior homes are coming up that offer a fun and busy choice of life, especially after 60.Even if your senior loved ones live with you at home, staying alone the entire day or just being with grandchildren can often lead to loneliness and depression, as they may not be able to connect with their own generation. This can lead to other health issues. In such a scenario, an old age home can be a good choice.Here is a list of some of the top old age homes in Navi Mumbai.1.
