Robert pattinson wife in real life

Sorry, this video isn't available any more. Kristen Stewart has discussed her relationship with Twilight co-star Robert Pattinson, admitting she wanted to marry him. The actress began dating R-Patz in 2009 after they met on the set of the vampire saga, and their romance continued on the DL until 2012, when they briefly split after Kristen was pictured kissing Snow White and The Huntsman director Rupert Sanders. Kristen and Robert reunited, only to split for good in May 2013. And the 29-year-old admits that she thought "that was it" when she was with the now 33-year-old actor. Howard Stern asked Kristen: "Was there a point you would've gotten married? Do you think?" Speaking on his SiriusXM show, Stewart laughed. "I don't know. I wanted to, yeah. I mean, I think... I've never been in..." Howard teased: "If he proposed, you would've gotten married", with Kristen replying: "I don't know. I'm not a super duper traditionalist, but at the same time, every relationship I've ever been in, I thought that was it." Kristen and Robert were the hottest couple in young Hollywood, despite never actually confirming their relationship until Kristen was forced to while apologising for her affair with Sanders. Addressing why they kept their romance under wraps, the Charlie's Angels star said: "It was [insane]. We wanted to keep it ours, so it was this thing of going like, do you live openly and share your life in a way that actually entitled you to living it sort of more freely and naturally, or do you put it on lock because you hate the idea of perpetuating this co-modified version of something that feels real to you? And you're like, "No, I'm not selling you s*". But then you actually deprive yourself of so many experiences. We didn't walk down the street holding hands because we were like, we don't wanna give it to 'em. But then we didn't get to walk down the street holding hands, and it sucked. "I had people genuinely asking me if that relationship was real or fake. You really think at this point, after all these years, that that's how I live my life? However, Kristen has nothing but kind words to say about her ex. She said: "We were together for years. That was my first [love]. I was super in love with my high school boyfriend. Super, super fing in love with him. But me and Rob were a little older, and it was just like, "Guh-gung!" "He's the best. He's the best." Robert is now dating Suki Waterhouse, while Kristen is in a relationship with screenwriter Dylan Meyer – and she already wants to put a ring on it after three months. Once upon a time, K-Stew and R-Patz's off-screen relationship was the stuff of Twilight fans' dreams. Their characters in the franchise eventually got hitched, and as it turns out, that could've happened in real life too. During a recent interview on The Howard Stern Show, Kristen Stewart discussed her relationship with Robert Pattinson — who she dated for more than 3 years before parting ways in 2013 — and confessed that marriage was on her mind at the time. Stewart and Pattinson were intensely private about their romance that was rumored to begin when they were 19 and 23, respectively. But over the last several years, both actors have occasionally opened up to reflect on the hysteria that surrounded them and why they chose to stay so guarded. "It's so weird actually being honest about [our relationship]," Stewart told Stern on the Nov. 5 episode. "I've actually never been allowed to just say what happened, because I was so self-conscious about seeming like an attention-seeker."After discussing the rumors about their relationship being faked for publicity, Stern asked if there was ever a point where she and Pattinson would have gotten married. "I don't know," Stewart laughed nervously. "I wanted to."Stern continued to push the topic and clarified, "If he proposed, you would've gotten married?" Stewart, still noticeably flustered, explained, "I don't know. I'm not a super-duper traditionalist, but at the same time ... every relationship I've ever been in, I thought that was it. I've never really been the most casual person."In July 2012, Stewart was photographed kissing Rupert Sanders, her director in Snow White and the Huntsman. At the time, Sanders was married, and Stewart and Pattinson were still an item. The pair split briefly following the affair, ended up reconciling later that year, and finally split for good in May 2013. "People wanted me and Rob to be together so badly that our relationship was made into a product," Stewart reflected to T Magazine in 2016. "It wasn't real life anymore." Juan Naharro Gimenez/WireImage/Getty ImagesStewart told Stern that she still thinks Pattinson is "the best," though. The former couple managed to keep in touch over the years, and even sparked romance rumors yet again after they were photographed together back in July 2018. Even though it was purely platonic, Stewart remains one of Pattinson's biggest fans. After it was announced that he'd be starring as the newest Batman, Stewart told Variety in September that Pattinson was "the only guy that could play that part." She enthusiastically continued, "I'm so happy for him."As for their current love lives, Stewart was last linked to screenwriter Dylan Meyer back in August, following her nearly two-year relationship with model Stella Maxwell. Meanwhile, Pattinson has reportedly been dating Suki Waterhouse since around July 2018. Despite Robert Pattinson's big screen career and Suki Waterhouse's supermodel status, we don't know much about their relationship. Both of these Brits prefer to keep their private life out of the public sphere. As their romance approaches the three-year mark, here's a rundown of their secretive story. July 2018Pattinson and Waterhouse are first linked on July 30 when E! obtains photos of the pair kissing in the streets of London. Per the outlet's report, the two saw a 9 p.m. showing of Mamma Mia! Here We Go Again at Electric Cinema in Notting Hill. They then walked across the street for drinks at SoHo House until 1 a.m.An eyewitness said the couple was open with their affection. "Along the way, they were very close and cuddled and kissed many times," the source told E! News. "Robert was very affectionate to her and had his arm around her the whole way and Suki reciprocated by holding his hand and kissing it. They were very loved up and close. Robert stroked Suki's hair and gave her another loving kiss."August 2018Although neither Pattinson nor Waterhouse confirms the relationship, a source tells Us Weekly that the pair has been dating for months. The insider said the actors had "known each other and been around each other for a long time." Other commonalities include "a love of music" and that they "are both really cool, nice and normal people and fun-loving." Both parties also have experience with keeping relationships with high-profile people low-key. Pattinson called off his engagement to FKA Twigs in late 2017. Previously, he dated Twilight co-star Kristen Stewart. Waterhouse's dating history includes a two-year relationship with Bradley Cooper and dates with James Marsden. David M. Benett/Getty Images An E! source says the pair is only "casually dating." Since Pattinson had only recently ended a three-year relationship, "He isn't looking for anything serious right now."The insider did express that the two "are definitely into each other" and are dating while Pattinson is in London filming The King. "Rob likes to have fun when he has breaks in-between filming and him and Suki have a great time together," the source added. Larry Busacca/Getty Images At the end of the month, a Daily Mail report claimed that the couple had split.September 2018LaineyGossip disputed the Daily Mail story, sharing that Pattinson had FaceTimed Waterhouse walking home from a London pub in August. Per this outlet's report, the couple were spotted at Miguel's concert in Los Angeles. Each also attended the Toronto International Film Festival for their respective projects this month. Pattinson was promoting High Life while Waterhouse walked the carpet for Assassination Nation. GP Images/Getty Images October 2018This month, the couple is photographed exiting London club Chiltern Firehouse at 2:15 a.m., seemingly confirming they were still together.December 2018Daily Mail captured the couple leaving a Christmas party on London's Regent Street. Waterhouse and Pattinson stayed at the party, which guest list allegedly included Bradley Cooper until the early morning hours January 2019Waterhouse then showed Pattinson her outfit while "they were both laughing." Per the insider, the couple "seemed very happy and in love" and that "both seem very into each other." August 2019E! publishes a picture of Pattinson and Waterhouse strolling through London, something the outlet claims this couple does often in the area.

Although they've kept it very quiet, this couple's one-year relationship speaks volumes.September 2019In early September, photographer Sofia Malamute shares a photo of the couple cuddled together, captioned, "Ibiza, 2019." Considering Waterhouse follows Malamute's Instagram account, the picture was likely posted with her permission. This content is imported from Instagram. You may be able to find the same content in another format, or you may be able to find more information, at their web site. January 2020After several months of quiet, Waterhouse and Pattinson confirm their relationship is still going strong. The pair is seen leaving Waterhouse's 27th birthday party in London on January 12, per LaineyGossip. According to the photo agency, the couple has been snapped by paparazzi nearly every month since news they were dating became public. They celebrate her birthday at London's Casa Cruz with an event attended by Liv Tyler, Georgia May Jagger, Cara Delevingne, and Ashley Benson. (Delevingne and Benson reportedly end things in April 2020.)The couple also sparks engagement rumors at the start of the year, per the Daily Mail. While attending a Dior dinner party in Paris, Waterhouse can be seen wearing a ring on her left finger. However, neither confirms the news and she doesn't make a habit of rewearing the jewelry. Bertrand Rindoff Petroff/Getty Images May 2020Pattinson essentially confirms that he's quarantining with Waterhouse during an interview for GQ's June cover. According to the article, Pattinson has been sequestered "with his girlfriend" in the London apartment "the Batman folks rented for him" while production on the film is paused. That reporting is line with the DailyMail, which spots the couple leaving a grocery store in Notting Hill around mid-April. One item the couple carries in the photo-op? Kellogg's corn flakes, one of the ingredients Pattinson uses for a...unique pasta dish he makes during an interview for the GQ profile.July 2020The couple confirms they're still going strong, two years into their relationship, with a pair of public outings. On July 21, Pattinson and Waterhouse are photographed walking arm-in-arm around London's Notting Hill. (You can see the rare photo here.) A source speaks to E! about the sighting, telling the outlet, "They weren't recognized by anyone and they seemed to be in their own little world as they took a long stroll around the village chatting intently, pointing at properties and laughing together before they arrived at the club. They held hands the whole time or were linking arms and looked very happy."The following day, People publishes another photo of the couple on a walk. An insider tells the outlet, "They are very loved-up," adding, "They haven't been together that long. But everything seems on the fast track. They are always laughing and smiling at each other."September 2020The pair's most PDA-filled photo yet arrives about 12 days after Pattinson was reported to have tested positive for COVID-19, per CBS News. Although the studio never confirmed that report, production on The Batman was "temporarily paused." It resumed in September, days after Pattinson and Waterhouse's outing. In the photo, the couple sit on a London park bench with coffees, kissing while masks are pulled down to their chins.October 2020 Pattinson's recovery apparently only strengthened his relationship. A source tells E! that "Rob and Suki have definitely discussed getting engaged but are in no rush. Suki is not pressuring him and they are both very committed to each other." The insider confirms the couple's romance is "stronger than ever" after quarantine. "They are being low-key together and have very similar interests," the source adds. "They are truly inseparable and in love." The close pal even says Waterhouse has earned the seal of approval from Pattinson's family. "[They] think they are a great match, better than any of his previous relationships," per the source.November 2020Shortly after E! reported the two had discussed getting engaged, Pattinson and Waterhouse were photographed out with Pattinson's parents in London. The two walked side-by-side behind Pattinson's mom and dad on November 23. They opted not show any PDA in front of them or the photographers who captured this outing.April 2021After months out of the limelight, Waterhouse made headlines when she posted a selfie on herself on April 15. Eagle-eyed fans noticed that a photo of her kissing Pattinson was visible in the background. This content is imported from Instagram. You may be able to find the same content in another format, or you may be able to find more information, at their web site. On April 19, Pattinson and Waterhouse were photographed out in London for the first time in 2021. The two held hands while walking in Notting Hill. Both dressed casually, wearing shorts and hoodies. It served as a rare public signal that a year into quarantine, the couple's relationship remained strong.
